SHELTON STATE MUSIC STUDENTS TO PERFORM THIS SUMMER

TUSCALOOSA – A group of Shelton State Community College sophomore music students will participate in a series of voice recitals this summer at the Alabama Power Recital Hall on the Martin Campus, 9500 Old Greensboro Road.

The recitals are scheduled as follows:

- June 6: Sopranos Jessica O'Bryant and Mary Stakem, 3 p.m.
- June 19: Mezzo-soprano Austin Woddail, 2 p.m.
- June 27: Soprano Karen Killion, 3 p.m.
- July 31: Mezzo-soprano Stacie Holland, 2 p.m.

Only students who are second-year or beyond are provided the opportunity to give recitals as part of the requirements for the Associate Degree in music. All are students of Glinda Blackshear. Their accompanist will be Arthur Bosarge.

Three of these programs will also be performed as part of the Capstone Village Summer Concert Series: Wednesday, May 26, Killion will sing at 3 p.m.; on July 14, Woddail will sing at 3 p.m.; and on July 28, Holland will sing at 3 p.m.
